Some Comments:

Moe's Restaurant - An off-the-beaten-path local's favorite. French cuisine with wonderfully heavy cream sauces. Go for quiches, soufflés, casseroles and daily specials. Lunch and dinner; from $6 to $14. Inexpensive food in a friendly atmosphere. Closed Sat and Mon.

Chico's Cantina - Great little Mexican Rest. As you come into town on Hwy 1 it's on the left hand side just before the main stop into Key West. Small but the food is wonderful.

Key West Diner while the early bird special is on for the breakfast buffet. Four pounds of bacon, 2 dozen scrambled eggs, biscuits, gravy, cheese sauce, etc, etc -- 4 bucks.

Camille's for lunch, order the chicken salad anything.

Mangia Mangia: they make their pasta right on the premises.

Alonzo's (at A&B Lobster House) sit outside for lunch; White clam chili & lobster sandwich.
